was a heavy shower. James McLaughlin's Oxford was a hot favorite, the odds dropping from 3 to 1 to 11 to 5, but after waiting with him to the head of the stretch Lyne could not get him to extend himself, with the result that he was a noor third. Hildsbrand not get him to extend himself, with the result that he was a poor third. Hildebrand made all the running with Von Tromp, who was trained to the minute. Don Royal was the runnerup to the middle of the far turn, where Sydney Pa'get's Cairngorm, the top weight, passed him and went after the Keene colt under the whip. It was a long struggle down the stretch, but Von Tromp did not quit, winning by a length in 2:21 1-5. Cairngorm was three lengths before Oxford, who beat P. J. Dwyer's Red Friar, a long shot, by a neck. F. R. Hitchebek's Vendor, 5 to 1, carried off the Waldorf Stakes for two-year-old colts and geldings, six furiongs on the main track, after smashing drive, in which he took tie measure of Senator P. H. Mct'arren's Voorhees, an odds-on favorite, by half a length. Voorhees, ridden by O'Neill, made all the pace until Vendor nailed him at the end. The until Vendor nailed him at the end. The latter was the runnerup at all stages, and simply outgamed the Mctarren colt. S. S. Brown's Accountant, second in favor at 4 to 1, was shut off on several occasions, and at the last sixteenth Martin went to the outside, incidentally bumping Benevolent so that Burns was competled to pull up. Accountant then went on and got third money, three parts of a length behind yoorhees and a length and a half before R. T. Wilson, ar.'s Galayane, 8 to 1. Burns claimed foul against Accountant, but it was not anowed by the stewards. The time was 142 2-5.

a half Detore R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s Gallavant, 8 to 1. Burns claimed four against Accountant, but it was not allowed by the stewards. The time was 114 2-5.

whimsical, now considered the best two-year-old filly, took the Belles Stakes, at five and a half furlongs on the Futurity Course. She was a favorite, though her price receded to 6 to 5, and Martin, after following the pace set by T. C. McDowell's King's Daughter. 6 to 1, sent Whimsical to the front at the last furlong pole for an easy victory by a length in 137 2-5. King's Daughter, under a drive, kept the place from H. P. Whitney's Perverse, a Meddler filly, who was a 2 to 1 second choice and got third money from E. R. Bradley's VIO by a nose.

Willie Shields's Balzac, who went up to 6 to 1, made every jump a winner in the steeple-chase over the short course, but he tirsi at the end and only won by three parts of a length from Ruth's Rattler, 4 to 1, who was the runnerup all the way. It was a 'tight fit for third money, J. E. Widener's Daffo Down Dilly, 4 to 1, beating Trenet the Mere, 10 to 1, by a head. The time was 4:12.

W. W. Darden's mare, Miss Crawford, one of several choices at 4 to 1, got a brilliant ride from little Miller in the handicap at one mile and one eighth on the turf. She was kept in restraint until Spring had tired of the pace making on the far turn, where she went to the front. Miller went to a, drive at the furlong pole and drew away from.Grapple, the 3 to 1 favorite, but, as Race King, 15 to 1, also closed resolutely under Lyne's exertions, Miller never relaxed his efforts until Miss Crawford had passed the judges two and a half lengths to the good. Race King took the place from Grapple by three parts of a length, with Spring a length and half away. The time was 1:57 1-5.

Confederate, a two-year-old, backed, down to 10 to 1, took the fifth race, for all ages, at six furlongs on the main track, in a sharp drive from Peter Wimmer's Chrysolite, 30 to 1, by less than a length. All Right, another 30 to 1 chance, nailed third money in a s

NOTED PLUNGER GOES TO THE

Said to Have Dropped More Than $100,000 on the Horses, but He Will Make Another Effort to Recoup Ring Operations at the Sheepshead Bay Track.

WALL ONCE MORE.

Dave Johnson, one of the best known piungers on the American turf, is practically broke again. For several days he has been watching the horses run from a private box in the grand stand at Sheepshead Bay, keeping constantly clear of the humdrum of the betting ring. At the Saratoga meeting a story was affoat that Johnson had dropped $100,000, but when the scene shifted to the Bay he was still playing the horses with a lavish hand. A week ago the plunger made a number of $5,000 and $10,000 wagers which were retained by the bookmakers, and after that he threw up his hands, declaring to his friends that On several occasions Johnson has been temporarily embarrassed, but he has always got a new bank roll with which to resume his spectacular operations. In his name and colors the noted weight carrier and sprinter Roseben won a series of races this year and Johnson in each instance backed him heavily, but Jacquin, also running in his colors, was not so successful.

Johnson, however, did not confine his speculation to his own horses, but played every race day after day with a free hand. When he came into the ring he made no attempt to conceal his selection, with the result that he was followed from book to book by a curious crowd. Johnson's word is his bond, and there has never been a time when he could not secure unlimited credit in the ring, but it is said he does not owe a dollar, although he has reached a rock bottom basis. On several occasions yesterday Johnson sent his commissioner to the ring with a number of small cash bets. Some were successful, but the day was not profitable successful, but the day was not profitable enough to suit the plunger, who is determined to secure another foothold and then run the proverbial shoestring into a bank roll of leviathan proportions. Johnson is a sportsmanlike loser, and his friends as a result are pulling for him to recoup.

Willie shields came down from the Adiroadacks yesterday to see his colors carried by Balzac in the steeplechase. He wanted Ray to have the leg up, but the jockey did not care to take a chance because of an important engagement to ride in a steeplechase on Saturday. So Rogan, who usually exercises Balzac, had the mount, with the result that Shields and his friends did not look for victory.

One of the conditions of the Waldorf Stakes was that the owner of the winner should give a banquet to the other subscribers. Accordingly, F. R. Hitchcock was the host at Sherry's last night, with these invited guests: S. S. Brown, P. H. McCarren, H. B. Durrea, John Sanford, H. K. Knapp, R. T. Wilson Jr., W. A. Chandler, P. J. Dwyer, T. Hitchcock Jr., B. F. Clyde and Andrew Miller. Mr. Hitchcock's Vendor's share of the stake was $6,125, together with $500 in plate. S. S. Brown's Agile won this race last year under similar conditions.

Jr. B. F. Clyde and Andrew Miller, Mr. Hitchcock's Vendor's share of the stake was $6,125, together with $500 in plate. S. S. Brown's Agile won this race last year under similar conditions.

As Senator McCarren's lease of the running qualities of Voorhees expired after the race, Newton Bennington announced that the colt would be sold at auction a week from next Saturday. Voorhees lost a fortune for his backers. He was pounded down to 4 to 5. Wheelock, Charley Heney, the Lichtensteins and Hob Rose making the biggest wagers. S. S. Brown's Accountant was also well supported by Grant Lyman, Morris Stack, Bob Tucker and Eddle McDonald, while R. T. Wilson Jr.'s Gallavant carried the money of Jack McDonald, Charley Cash and Fred Eshner.

Wheelock had $3,000 on James R. Keene's Von Tromp in the September Stakes, with Heliey and Bob Rose also aboard. Bill Porter was about the only notable speculator to fancy Oxford, who was made a favorite by the public. Grant Lyman and Aleck Shields took Cairngorm, and Rose of Dawn was backed by Charley Fox and Eddle Burke. Mr. Keene, who was present, was well pleased with Von Tromp's performance. This colt was in receipt of fifteen pounds from Cairngorm, who ran a splendid race under the circumstances, as the Paget colt was badly kicked at the post by Rose of Dawn.

The September Stakes was run for the first time in 1881, the winners being Crickmore, Tom Plunket, George Boyd, Batten, illashandra, Blues, Caughnawaga, The Picket and Beldame. Since 1891 the distance has been a mile and three furlongs, Beldame holding the record for the race at this distance, 2:193-5.

Eddie Burke won $5,000 on the victory of Confederate, in the fifth race, the two-year-old, who is the first to win a race of this kind this year, being played from 20 down to 10. There was a strong play on George C. Bennett's Forehand in this evert, the largest bets being credited to Eole Pearsall, Heney and Morris Stack. Wheelock dropped $2,500 on Lairetta, the favorite. Orly II., floyal Window and Third Alarm were also ba

LIEUT, TEWES'S WIMBLEDON. New Jersey Man Scores 84 in the Classic

SEA GIRT, N. J., Sept. 6.—The Wimbledon Cup, the classic event of the American rifle range, was won to-day by Lieut, W. A. Tewes of the First New Jersey, with a score of 84. The famous cup, a handsome old silver tankard presented in the seventies by the National Rifl: Association of Great Britain, for American competition on the 1,000 yard range, never was shot for under harder conditions of wind. Tewes handled the wind that fishtailed through 6 o'clock, in masterly fashion, and his victory was a popular one He has come rapidly to the front in recent years as a skilled exponent of long range work, is consistently strong at all ranges, and is a fine judge of conditions.

Lieut. Casey of the Seventy-first New York was Tewes's most formidable opponent, but the match was conceded to Tewes when he began a run of bullseyes in his last string of five shots. Tawes's score ran: 3, 5, 4, 4, 5, for the changes in light were not frequent enough to bother the old shots. When the match was begun at 1:30 o'clock there were ninety competitors on the firing line, equipped with numerous varieties of firearms and ammunition, for the Wimbledon is one of the few matches that imposes no restrictions.

A Modelly Time some the Power and the Control of th

-Schreck-Wille Mill "No Contest." Eddie Hanlon, the San Francisco light-weight, defeated Willie Fitzgerald of Brookon a foul at Los Angeles last Tuesday ounds, but Fitzgerald struck Hanlon in clinches, which was contrary to the rules, and was disqualified. Hanlon had the better of the mill up to the time the contest was stopped and probably would have won on of the mill up to the time the contest was stored and probably would have won on stored was that the first two horses were both sired by the memorable Tenny.

The Keene fillies, Truelove and St. Ursula, who ran in the Belles, were coupled at the long odds of 40 to 1, a price not often seen against the representatives of this powerful stable.

Trainer Karrick is carrying his right hand about swathed in a bandage. It is said that he pricked a finger with his scarfpin and then inserted it in the mouth of a horse that was suffering from an ulcerated tooth, with the result that a slight attack of blood goisoning set in.

Jack McDonald and Tom Costigan are said to be the heaviest winners at the present meeting at the Bay.

Glendon to Coach Annapolis Crew Again.

Annapolis, Sept. 6.—Richard Glendon of the Boston Athletic Association, who has coached the Naval Academy rowing crews successfully for the last two seasons, has been engaged for next year. He is now in Annapolis and will spend a month looking over the material in the new fourth class. The Navy expects to row Yale, Columbia, Pennsylvania and Georgetowa next season, as last. Midshipman Kenneth Huron of San Francisco has been appointed manager of aquatics.

No Scoring Until Ninth Inning, When New Yorks Make Two-Leaders Beat Bostons, Chicagos Shut Out Detroits Twice—Clevelands Down Browns.

Old Pop Griffith, who can still show younger boxmen a few pitching kinks, finessed so shrewdly against the Washingtons yesterday that they were shut out by the New York Americans. However, the climb to third place was deferred, as the Clevelands bucked up and downed the Browns. The Chicagos, too, underwent a resuscitating process and crushed the Detroits with a couple of shutouts. The Philadelphias paid off a score by conquering the beany brigade. The results:

DETROIT, Sept. 4.—Pitcher Smith of Chicago against Detroit to day accomplished that rare act of pitching a no hit game. Not only did the locals fail to hit safely, but they also failed to get anything that remotely resembled a hit. Only three locals reached first and that trio on bases on balls. Dr. White was nearly as effective in the other game allowing but four hits, three of which were very scratchy. John Wiggs, a new pitcher from Burlington, Vt., lasted one laning only. The scores:

PROVIDENCE, Sept. 6.—The Myopia and Dedham polo teams contested to-day in the finals for the What Cheer cup offered by Mrs.

J. Russell Gladding. A handicap of four goals was allowed Myopia, and it was expected that the Dedham team, which included Forbes and Crane, two of the old championship players, would win easily. On the contrary, Myopia, largely through the superior work of Ames and Tweed, won, with the score 10% to 9, at the close of the last period. Ames played by far the best game of any man on either team, and Tweed, who has been following the game for only three months, was hardly less shiftul. Forbes and Crane were not in their usual form and Dabmey was still worse. PureRye Whiskey
